If you're just starting out with limited credit history, or working to re-establish a positive credit rating, we may have just the tool to help you along.

The RMLEFCU Credit Builder Loan puts a loan in your name—from $500 to $5,000—in a share account that you pay off with comfortable terms; the amount of the loan becomes accessible to you as it is paid off, and earns interest in the interim.

- No money is needed to secure the loan
- Eligible to members 18 and older who have means to repay the loan
- Low monthly installment payments
- Convenient automatic payments are available

The Credit Builder Loan builds a valuable savings account while helping build a positive repayment history—all with no risk, no cost, and no pain. Ask a representative how you can take advantage of this beneficial program.
